St. Paul Lutheran Church

A Message from Pastor Mathew

<sup>3</sup>I thank my God every time I remember you, <sup>4</sup>constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, <sup>5</sup>because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. <sup>6</sup>I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:3-6

Dear people of St. Paul,

In August of 2019, you welcomed me as your pastor. Pastor Amy and I both had many hopes for ministry at St. Paul and St. Petri. And by God's grace and the power of the Holy Spirit, much good ministry has happened here. I am so grateful for the relationships, experiences, and ministry we have shared together over these past two and a half years.

Now with our son Simon in our lives and an ongoing pandemic shaping our world, the time has come for us to move closer to family. After much prayer for God's guidance, Pastor Amy and I have now been called to serve together at a congregation in Maryland, closer to family.

My final Sunday at St. Paul will be March 6, 2022 and my final day as pastor will be March 10.

It is hard to find the words to express the gratitude I have for all of you. Thank you. Thank you for welcoming me as your pastor. Thank you for entrusting me with all the joys, challenges, and responsibilities that go along with it.

A first call shapes a pastor, and you have shaped me. I will always give thanks to God for the opportunity to serve at St. Paul and alongside all of you.

When you called me as your pastor, I met you on the way. You were already faithfully carrying out the ministry that God calls us to, and I joined you. Together we continued that work: worshipping God, reaching out to our communities, and serving in Jesus' name.

Now God is calling me to something new. God is calling me to serve alongside Pastor Amy and God is calling me to be nearer to family. But I am not the only one being called. God is calling you to continue in the work of ministry, to continue building one another up in love and sharing the good news. And God promises us that this work is not in vain.

I hope and pray that over the next month we will have the opportunity to give thanks for the ministry that has happened here, and look expectantly into what God has in store for us next. The Holy Spirit made our ministry possible in the first place, and even when we have said goodbye, the Holy Spirit will remain here with all of you. And there is no better guide than the Holy Spirit.

You are in my prayers. May God bless you and keep you, always.

In Christ,

Pastor Mathew

If you would like to help serve a meal, please contact any church council member.

Lenten Prayer Partners

During this Lenten season, we invite members of all ages to be prayer partners. A prayer partner can encourage and remind others to put their hope and focus on Jesus Christ. You can walk through life together sharing joys, hurts, struggles, and triumphs.

Once you are assigned a prayer partner:

- Come up with a regular communication plan. It doesn't have to be every single day but you can decide if you are going to meet in person, talk on the phone, email, or text.
- If you don't know the person well, get to know them by asking questions about them or their family.
- Ask, "How can I be praying for you?"
- Pray! Be dependable and trustworthy in your prayer.

"Let us keep looking to Jesus. Our faith comes from Him and He is the One who makes it perfect." Hebrews 12:2

Please sign up on the kiosk by March 6.

ST. PAUL LENTEN JOURNEY '22

In 2022, we will focus on different ways that the Lenten Journey can make us stronger:

for me - becoming a stronger individual through self-reflection and self-care for you - creating stronger relationships through connections, communication and prayer for us - building a stronger congregation through worship and fellowship for them - becoming stronger in service as we give to those in our community

for Him - becoming stronger for Him

Please join a STRONGER for them team for our food pantry team challenge. A sign up sheet is on the STRONGER for Him table in the gathering space at St. Paul.
